We recognize that it is HE, The Lord, who supplies us with the resources that are needed for the work He expects us to do. He uses his individual children to provide the means, in the form of money, time and or products for the work He wants to have done at home or abroad in the missions field. So we have the obligation to prove to our donors and HIM, that we are faithful stewards and maintain integrity and openness in our financial practices.

The ultimate objective of Facilite is supporting the advancement of the Gospel of Jesus Christ by the hands of evangelist Reverend Abram Krol, a proven dedicated, fearless but even so effective worrier for the cause of eternal salvation of lost souls at home as in mission fields.

Members of the Board of Directors are independent according to legal and accountability standards. They are not on the payroll of the foundation. They are responsible for maintaining the governance of the organization conform Biblical practices.

Board meetings are held to establish policies, review and correct practices, outcome and results in the individual ministry fields of operation. Contributions will be used faithfully and wisely, in accordance with the mission and critical individual needs in ways that earn a hearing for the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

(Special) donations will be used for the programs and purpose that they are intended for.

Financial Statements are published on the Facilite.nl website. These statements are in general in the Dutch Language. Since 2023 we also translate them into English as a service to our English donors.

We respect the privacy of our donors, supporters by never sharing their personal names and addresses with anybody outside the interest of the Foundation.

INFORMATION about the presented financial data.

1. Balance Sheet

Balance sheet shows Facilite receives its donations by Bank. Money that has not to be spent in the coming month will be put on its secure savings account, before it will be transferred to the field activities in the Facilite missions in Congo, Nepal, Ivory Coast, Guinee, Liberia, and lately also Togo. At the year end we had to receive still 4,000 Euro from a gratefully promised grand. Current liabilities include some short time loan and a credit from Christian relations on soft terms: no interest, or fixed term of repayment. But even a possibility of rebranding as grand.

2. Donations

We have a small group of individual Christians and several Churches who are very dedicated in supporting the activities in our mission fields. For special needs, like Children's Bibles, we work with interested Foundations.

3. Breakdown of Expenses 2023

It shows that 98,0 % of the funds received goes direct into mission. Over the years, we noticed, that this intense personal contact with local parties involved is an important component of the success in spreading the Gospel in these mission fields. So Rev. Abram Krol does travel to all mission fields coaching and supporting the own fieldworkers and leaders of many local supporting churches as often as possible.

4. Expenses

The main focus of Facilite is directed towards the more or most poor regions of a country. These people cannot afford to buy a Bible. Many rural churches have ONE Bible for all its members. Due to the expansion of existing and new churches (also in additional area's or neighbouring countries) we need some 25 % additional funding in order to run the daily operations in all mission fields.

Until now we are always astonished that the Lord will provide in the end.

5. Accountability

As Christians we realize that we have to maintain the highest form of accountability. We have the strict rule, that all transactions with the mission fields are run through the bank system, making every payment easily tracible and accounted for.

In addition we inform all board members always in advance of the necessity and the amount of every payment to one of the missions. After every mission trip, Rev. Abram Krol gives a detailed written review of the activities and the expenses that had to be made. By doing so we maintain a daily open and direct accountability approach.

6. Board members

Members of the Board are independent according to legal and accountability standards. They are responsible for maintaining the governance of the organization conform Biblical practices. None of the board members of Foundation Facilite is on the payroll of the foundation. Only travel expenses can be declared. They all have other jobs, or are retirees who enjoy their retirement income.
